

WILMINGTON WOMAN'S CLUB, INC.
SPONSORS
THE COASTAL LIVING SHOW
INCLUDING
"GOING GREEN IN THE COURTYARD"
APRIL 18 AND 19, 2009

The 30th Annual Show will be held at the Schwartz Center, Cape Fear Community College, 601 Front Street, Wilmington, NC 28401.

The show hours are:

Saturday, April 18th---10:00AM—5:00PM

Sunday, April 19th---11:00AM---4:00PM

Approximately 30 "Going Green Exhibitors" will be in the show and positioned on the concrete area surrounding the Schwartz Center at CFCC.

Courtyard display space (10 X 10) is $100. All tents must be firmly anchored. You must provide your own tent, table, and chairs. However, we do have rental options available through Coastal Show Services and will provide the information upon your request. Electricity is NOT available in the courtyard.

We will be glad to visit the area with you to determine your display requirements.

- The parking lot behind Schwartz should be used for unloading. Parking is not allowed on Front St. CLS will not be responsible for parking tickets if you choose to unload in this area.
- Food and drink will be provided to exhibitors, free of charge, during the show.
- There will be security for the area Friday and Saturday nights. At your discretion, any part of your display may be set-up on Friday night. On Saturday morning set-up begins at 7:00AM. St Paul's Lutheran Church Scout Troop will be available to help.
- For those who prefer there are 10 X 10 booths available inside the coliseum. The fee varies from $400-$480.

CLS is not responsible for bad weather or other natural disasters and reserves the right to make last minute changes in reserved places due to extreme or unusual circumstances. The "Going Green" portion of the Coastal Living Show will be canceled only if weather conditions are very bad and forbidding. If the show is canceled 50% of your exhibitor fee will be returned.

For further information contact:

Betty Adams 910-350-0332 H 910-352-9539 C

Sue VanNote 910-313-1907 scvannote@bellsouth.net

Visit our website: wilmingtonwomansclub.com